

TIMELINE

Revising Residential Attendance Zones Process

Oct 2024 - Feb 2025

Review of student enrollment, facility utilization, and projected growth

Feb. 14, 2025

School Board workshop to present results of review

Mar. 3-13, 2025

Initial public meetings to explain the rezoning process, outline the criteria for establishing residential attendance zones, and provide an opportunity for public input

Mar - May 2025

1. Staff designs and presents a minimum of three rezoning plans/maps for review and discussion
2. Staff holds additional public meetings to present the three rezoning plans/maps, data related to each plan, and the strengths/weaknesses of each plan, along with time for questions and answers

Summer 2025

Superintendent and staff review public feedback and refine plans as needed

September 2025

Superintendent recommends a proposed final new rezone map to the School Board for consideration

October 2025

School Board approves final new rezone map

2026/2027

New and revised residential attendance zone to take effect