- Completion of an approved district add-on reading endorsement program.
- Completion of an approved certificate from a program offered by an internationally recognized organization known for establishing standards for evidence-based interventions for struggling readers. At this point only one program has been approved, but we anticipate more in the near future.
- A passing score on the Reading Certification Exam
 - The application for the exam must have been filed by December 22, 2019 to add Reading Endorsement under the new rule. The exam must be no older than ten (10) years from the application date. The exam is not valid if used for issuance of an expired Professional Certificate.

Summary Analysis on Bill #HB 887 Reading Instruction

Florida law provides for a multitude of programs, initiatives, and requirements to assist in implementing effective reading instruction and interventions for struggling readers, particularly in early grades. To further increase the quality of reading interventions, the bill:

- beginning with the 2020-2021 school year, requires teachers who provide reading interventions under a school district's K-12 comprehensive reading plan to be certified or endorsed in reading;
- requires the Florida Department of Education (DOE), as part of its review of certain certification and endorsement requirements, to consider awarding a reading endorsement to teachers who are certified by an internationally recognized reading intervention organization or who completed a program accredited by the organization; and
- requires school districts to provide teachers access to training for a reading endorsement consistent with the DOE's review of endorsement requirements.

The bill does not appear to have a fiscal impact. The bill takes effect on July 1, 2018.

Reading Endorsement Frequently Asked Questions

1. What is the difference between Reading Endorsement and Reading Certification?
 - a. An endorsement is a “rider” on top of a valid Florida teaching certificate with another subject coverage and denotes an expertise in an instructional level or methodology. An endorsement cannot stand alone on a certificate. Certification stands on its own. The criteria for 2 each are determined by the state of Florida. The Reading Endorsement does not require a Subject Area Exam; whereas, Reading Certification does.
2. Does a teacher with a master’s degree in Reading need to earn the Reading Endorsement?
 - a. No, a teacher does not need both. A teacher either needs to be reading endorsed or reading certified. A master’s degree in reading meets all the state’s requirements to teach reading. In order to be in compliance with state mandates, Reading Endorsement or Reading Certification must be added to the teacher’s Florida teaching certificate.
3. Where do I start with my Reading Endorsement questions and courses?
 - a. Read the Reading Endorsement Information (this document) first.
 - b. Review the Flow Chart on page 7 and determine if you need to be Reading Endorsed.
 - c. To determine if any of your college/university courses will count towards your endorsement, you can apply to the Florida Department of Education to receive an Official Statement of Status of Eligibility. To apply, an application fee of $75.00 is required.
4. Do I have to take the Reading Endorsement Competencies Course(s) to receive my Reading Endorsement?
 - a. To be Reading Endorsed you must complete the necessary competencies applicable to your license OR you have the option to take the Reading Certification Exam.
5. When will teachers be able to apply to add the Reading Endorsement with a passing score on the Reading K-12 subject area exam?
 - a. Since the Rule 6A.-4.0292 went into effect on December 22, 2019, educators are now able to apply under the new rule.
6. Are there any stipulations on the date of the exam to be eligible for the endorsement? Will applicants need to re-take the subject area exam for Reading K-12?
 - a. If the exam is no older than 10 years and has not been used for issuance of an initial certificate, applicants can use this exam to apply to have the Reading Endorsement added to their certificate.
7. Can you give me more information about the Florida Reading Exam?
 - a. A passing score on the Florida Reading Exam will count for the Reading Endorsement.
 - b. The current price for the Reading Exam is $150.
 - c. The life of the Reading Exam is 10 years from the date that the exam was passed.
 - d. Website Links:
 - i. Florida Teacher Certification Exam Reading K-12
 - ii. Florida Teacher Certification Exam Reading Resource Materials

8. Will districts be able to process additions of the Reading Endorsement by individuals who pass the Reading K-12 Exam, either on a Professional or a Temporary certificate?
 - a. Yes, districts can process these additions.

9. After I pass the Reading Exam or complete my endorsement courses, what are my next steps?
 - a. First, contact the SDMC certification department to make an appointment to bring your paperwork (Reading comp certificates from MyPGS OR FL Exam Score Report) and payment to the appointment. They will submit your information to the state.

10. Does every teacher (math, social studies, P.E., music, etc.) of a retained third grade student need to be certified or endorsed in reading?
 - a. No. Section 1011.62(9), F.S., requires that, beginning with the 2020-2021 school year, intensive reading interventions must be delivered by a teacher who is certified or endorsed in reading. Thus, only the teacher who is delivering the intensive reading interventions will need to be certified or endorsed in reading.
 - b. Please refer to the SDMC Reading Endorsement Flow Chart (page 7).

11. After I receive my Official Statement of Status of Eligibility from the state, who can help me decipher which specific competencies I am required to take?
 - a. Amy Newman, Curriculum & Professional Learning Specialist at newmana@manateeschools.net

12. Who do I email my competency certificate to after I receive it from Literacy Solutions to be marked complete in MyPGS?
 - a. Amy Newman, Curriculum & Professional Learning Specialist at newmana@manateeschools.net

13. May teachers who are not certified or endorsed in reading provide the intensive reading interventions and be considered “out-of-field” while working toward earning the reading endorsement?
 - a. Teachers who provide Tier 3 Interventions in Reading may be out of field until December 31, 2020. Starting January 1, 2021, all teachers providing tier 3 interventions must have the reading endorsement or certification DOE ORDER NO. 2020-EO-07

Teacher status - Do I need to add the reading endorsement to my certificate?

You DO need to add the endorsement to your certificate.

IF you have taken reading coursework previously, the first step is to apply to add the Reading Endorsement to your certificate, and to have the FLDOE evaluate your college transcripts for credit based on previous reading coursework. There is a $75 add-on fee, which is paid upfront. This fee is for the transcript evaluation as well as the addition of the endorsement after any required coursework is completed. Once the evaluation is complete you will receive a Statement of Eligibility letter which is valid for three years. The letter may be sent to Amy Newman (newmana@manateeschools.net) for course clarification.

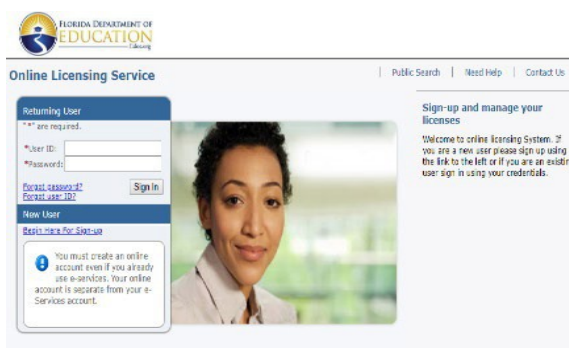

OR

You DO need to add the endorsement to your certificate.

IF you have no previous reading coursework, the first step is to contact Greta O'Hara-Morris (oharamorrisg@manateeschools.net) in the SDMC Certification Department for the determination of necessary coursework, processing of your application and to pay the $75 fee.

Literacy Solutions Updates

Update #1. Rule 6A-4.0163

Effective November 8, 2019, the FLDOE ratified changes to Rule: 6A-4.0163. These changes required updates to the Reading Endorsement Courses. For Reading Endorsement Competency 1, a duplicate course was created, and all new enrollments post November 8th are required to take the new version of the course (RL-ED-130-1). The remaining Reading Endorsement courses were updated with the new content. This implementation method was established in conjunction with Manatee County's Professional Learning Department. We assessed the number of users across the district and concluded that this was the best approach. For anyone that was in progress of taking the courses, these updates involved removing activities that no longer met the requirements per the 6A-4.0163 FLDOE Rule Changes and new activities being loaded throughout the courses.

Update #2. Teaching Channel Videos

On January 1, 2020. The Teaching Channel, which provided many of the instructional videos within Literacy Solutions courses, privatized access to their videos. Which means Literacy Solutions had to transfer ownership of the videos within the courses. This impacted all courses offered by Literacy Solutions. In order to recover from this instructional video impact, Literacy Solutions needed to replace all videos and associated discussion forums in all courses with other open-source content. These changes were completed between January 1st-12th. As a result of these changes, you will need to complete the new content in order to receive your certificate of completion.

We acknowledge that these changes have had an impact on your ability to effectively complete these courses and in some cases will require additional time to complete the courses. Manatee County and Literacy Solutions have made these changes within these existing courses versus adding additional courses as we felt this was the best solution.

We are extremely sensitive to the amount of personal time, commitment and sacrifice you make in order to meet your professional development requirements. We are committed to providing a successful and positive learning experience and Literacy Solutions will also learn and improve from this experience.
