

MAD LIBS

The school year is coming to an end. My _____ as a 6th grader are almost over.
(noun)

I'm going to miss _____ the most. I enjoyed _____ days (noun) (adjective)

the most because the school lunch smelled so _____. I still remember (adjective)

the day that _____ put a _____ in _____ lunch (friend #1 name) (color then a food) (friend #2)

Bag! I've never _____ so hard in my life! Eating _____ was never the (verb) (same food)

same after that!

The teachers I had this year were so _____ because they _____ all (adjective) (verb)

day! I am really going to miss _____ because they thought to invent (Proper noun teacher)

_____ shoes. I cannot wait to wear these to _____ when we (verb) (Proper noun-place)

vacation this year! _____ is going to want a pair!
(pronoun)

My friends this year were so _____. I still remember the day that _____ brought an oversized _____ to school. It was so _____.
(adjective)

(friend) (animal) (adjective)

Looking back, I think my favorite memory is when _____ taught us
(Proper noun-teacher)

about _____ in _____ class. That will stick with me for (noun) (type of class)

the rest of my life! Overall, I _____ that this year was a _____ one!
(verb) (adjective)

I can't wait for summer so that I can _____ everyday with my friends.
(verb)