

Elementary Summer Reading Lists

The following summer reading titles are from the Florida B.E.S.T. Standards book lists and from additional summer reading lists released by the Florida Department of Education. Please consider this list a starting place for books that can be read to and with your child this summer. Read aloud with your child for 20 minutes each day. Find books based on topics that your child is interested in and that they would like to become an expert on. Talk about what is happening in the text and make reading fun this summer! One of the joys of reading with your child is giving them the opportunity to see how a reader interacts with the text.
