Reading is not just about finishing books, but about having ideas, thoughts and wonderings about what you have read. Take some time to share your thinking about your books with someone. Another idea might be to take some time to jot down and/or draw your ideas on another sheet of paper and attach them to your reading log.

Enjoy Your Reading!