Title I, Part A

Title I, Part A is part of the Elementary and Secondary Education Act (ESEA) and has recently been renewed as part of the Every Student Succeeds Act (ESSA). It is the largest federally funded educational program. This program is authorized by Congress and provides supplemental funds to assist schools with the highest concentration of poverty.

Title I, Part A provides additional funding and educational services to schools with the highest percentage of low income families in order to increase student achievement. Title I, Part A grants help to "level the playing field" and allow Manatee County to provide a high-quality education to all students, regardless of background, economic status or locale.

Title I, Part A Federal Funds can be used to:

- hire additional highly qualified teachers to lower class sizes.
- hire staff to support Title I initiatives.
- provide supplemental materials, supplies and technology.
- support before and after school academic and remediation programs.
- provide high-quality professional training for teachers and administrators.

ESOL

The English for Speakers of Other Languages (ESOL) program provides support in English acquisition, academic success, and social assistance for Manatee County families that have been identified as English language learners (ELLs). A variety of programs are provided to support ELLs in all schools throughout the district.

W. D. Sugg Middle School recognizes the inherent linguistic and cultural diversity of its students. To provide English Language Learners (ELL) equal access to the curriculum, the educational community have developed a series of goals that will assist students in the acquisition of the English language to provide instruction in the content areas, and develop a setting where the students can assimilate the American culture while enriching and sharing their own cultural experiences with classmates and teachers.
