Consequences of Academic Misconduct
Reporting, Recording, Monitoring, and Rights

Plagiarism, collusion, misrepresentation, falsification, and cheating are unacceptable behaviors for students in the Louise R. Johnson K-8 School of International Studies. Academic dishonesty is treated as a very serious matter and may result in disciplinary actions. It is the policy of our school that any student guilty of presenting another student's work as his or her own, plagiarism, cheating in any manner on class work or tests, will be brought before Student Support Specialist/Administration. The student may face possible disciplinary actions. Students have the right to present evidence in their defense including the identification of classmates or teachers that could be called to write a statement regarding the matter in question. As per the discipline matrix, parents will be contacted as appropriate.

*Essential Agreements:

1. Try my best
2. Respect all
3. Control my body

*We will reflect on our academic integrity policy to make revisions on an annual basis to represent our new learning.

PYP Academic Integrity Policy
3rd through 5th Grade
2021-2022

Expectations for all PYP Students

As taught, retaught, and supported through our School Essential Agreements.*

Accept responsibility for own academic actions: This means integrity will be demonstrated in research, projects, documents, and homework, when I am working independently, by not copying the work of others and presenting it as my own; or using the words/work of others without their permission or acknowledgement. I will accept assistance from others, but not allow another to share answers or do MY work for me. I will submit my own ideas and work for all assignments and take responsibility for their content.

Assignments, Projects, and Presentations will reflect my ‘personal best’: This means I will do the best work I can, whether I am working independently or cooperatively, learning from and sharing knowledge with others. I will continue to learn and grow, as best I can, by striving to be a student of academic integrity presenting with confidence, my own work.

All assignments (i.e., quizzes, tests, formative, summative) I complete, will be done with honesty and integrity, following the explicit guidelines of my teacher.
