Old Business:

1. None

New Business:

- Title 1 Parent Survey
  - Bashaw had the highest return rate of Title 1 surveys this year!
  - Leadership – Bashaw scored well. The team would like to focus on how to increase engagement with families through opportunities such as SAC.
  - Collaborative Teachers – Bashaw scored well. Teachers say some families are consistent in responding to communication, however they would like to find ways to further engage more families.
  - Ambitious Instruction – Bashaw scored well.
  - Supportive Environment – Bashaw scored well. This is another opportunity to increase engagement with families through opportunities such as SAC.
  - Engaged Families – Bashaw scored well.
  - Additional Information – The top two areas of requested information at Understanding State Standards and Homework Help.
- Student Capacity - The district will be meeting with schools to evaluate the number of students at schools versus capacity.
- PM2 Update
  - Review of school goals and PM2 Proficiency scores
  - Comparison to the same time frame last year
  - Review of tools used to help teachers utilize this data in the classroom
  - Tutoring letters have gone home to specific students. Any parent that wants their student to participate in tutoring can reach out to be enrolled.
- Campus Update
  - Garden: weed barrier has been laid, pavers are on the way soon, mural is almost complete

- Kindergarten sensory path and play area: Ms. Jones will be heading up this project. Anyone wanting to volunteer should reach out to Ms. Jones.

Reports:

- None

Open Agenda:

- Are we up for a traffic survey? A lot has changed with the opening of the new bridge. Mr. Dougherty will research.
